

sovereign[®] DRAW

January 2017

Dear Branch Chair & Treasurer

A happy and prosperous New Year to you all. The December Christmas Draw brought three new winners of gold sovereigns, including Eric Montgomery, Treasurer of Beverley & Holderness Branch in East Yorkshire. The following winning Branches will receive donations of £100 towards their fighting funds.

- Huntingdon & South Cambs.
- Thurrock
- Beverley & Holderness

The Cash Rollover Prize was not won in December, so will now be worth a massive £1,400 in the next Draw on Wednesday 25th January – Burns Night. Will a Scottish member be a Winner perhaps? Lady luck moves in mysterious ways.

In mid-December I had the pleasure of meeting with our new Leader, Paul Nuttall, who, I can assure you, will be placing fund-raising at the top of the agenda in the months and years ahead. As we all know, the Party is in desperate need of sustainable funds, so we must all ensure that the Sovereign Draw plays a key role in that initiative, with all 386 Branches playing their part. We cannot afford to rest on our laurels – Brexit might have been achieved, but it is not yet implemented, so the hard work for our Party is just beginning.

January is traditionally the month for Branch AGMs. If you are a newly elected Treasurer, please pick up the phone and introduce yourself to me. We might be able to arrange a visit for me to give a talk at a future Branch meeting. Telephone, email or text me if you would like a supply of Sovereign Draw Application Forms. I can oblige you at very short notice – usually within 48 hours.
